YOUNG WOMAN MURDERED NEAR MARTINEZ

CRIME OF SIX MONTHS AGO IS REVEALED

Boy Finds Body in Woods at Franklin Canyon; Skull and Forehead Crushed; Three Knife Thrusts in the Breast

Only Clues That May Lead to Identification Are a Gold Wedding Ring, Breastpin and Shreds of Clothing

The revolting murder of a young woman in the woods of Franklin canyon, two and one-half miles from Martinez, was revealed this morning by the finding of her body, which had lain there about six months. Her skull and forehead were crushed, and marks showed that a knife had been plunged twice into her right breast and once into her left breast.

The coyotes had dragged the body about 20 yards from the place of the murder and had torn away practically every shred of clothing. The clothing was scattered about the hillside.

The only clues that may lead to identification are a gold wedding ring, a breastpin, a shoe and shreds of clothing.

Sheriff William Veale and the chief of police this morning said that their records of missing women afforded no inkling of a clue that might lead to the woman's identity.

The description of the murdered woman is as follows:

Ago between 20 and 25 years. Height about five feet, four inches, rather heavy set, weighing about 140 pounds.

Dark brown hair. Clothing—Shreds of navy blue lining, white shirtwaist material, fragments of black, cheap stockings, black, leather corset, no identifying marks.

Body found by 13-year-old boy. Although a boy came across the body yesterday afternoon, the fact was not revealed to the sheriff until this morning. It was found by Chas. Olsen, 13-year-old janitor of the Franklin Canyon school. The spot was about 80 yards from the school, on the hillside, in an almost inaccessible spot. The nearest trail is 150 yards away and that is a seldom-used cattle trail.

Mutely testifying to its part in the grim tragedy is the broken upper handle of a shovel which was found about five feet from the spot of the murder. The handle was split as if from having inflicted a heavy blow. It is the shovel that crushed in the skull of the woman, says the sheriff.

It was covered with bloodstains and pieces of hair. FIND PLAIN BAND RING ON FINGER. The sheriff and his deputies found the body after beating their way through the underbrush. The face was unrecognizable.

Scattered about in all directions for many yards were the bits of clothing that the coyotes had scattered. Not a shred of clothing remained on the body. The breastpin was found on a bit of clothing several yards away. On one of the fingers they found the wedding ring, a plain, wide, gold band. The sheriff decided to leave it there until the arrival of the coroner, when it will be removed to see if there are any inscriptions on the inside.

FIND PLACE WHERE MURDER WAS COMMITTED. A short search revealed the place where the murder was committed. The knife-wounds in the breast were unmistakable. They were in the lower part of the breast. The breast-pin found was of gold, with a small ring.

The pieces of clothing found were of good quality. There were pieces of navy blue lining of good material, and fragments of a white waist. It was to one of the latter fragments that there was attached the breast-pin.

Olsen, who found the body, had been to the home of one of the school trustees to get his pay check yesterday afternoon, and started through the woods on a short-cut on the return, taking his gun with him. He strayed into the cow-trail which he was following when his sight was attracted by the body.

When he arrived home he reported his discovery to his father. As the boy had frequently played practical jokes on his father, the latter angrily questioned him and refused to listen. This morning the boy became insistent and his father finally decided to investigate.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS LAW TO CURB REDS HERE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The Supreme Court held today that Congress had authority to enact the espionage law.

The court upheld the decision of lower courts against Jacob Abrams and others who were convicted of circulating revolutionary and disloyal leaflets printed in English and Yiddish. The leaflets were circulated in Manhattan.

The leaflets, published in August, 1918, urged American workers to overthrow the government and join Russia in the Soviet form of government. In making its decision the court indicated a strong sentiment for upholding the department of justice's campaign against revolutionaries.

"The defendants favored general strikes and a social revolution to keep the American army at home," said the court's decision.

Hines to Meet R. R. Men in Conference

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Rail Director Hines today summoned the heads of the four railway brotherhoods to meet with him tomorrow to discuss general conditions of railway employment. In the morning the brotherhood chiefs will confer with Hines. In the afternoon he will hear the demands of the railway and conductor brotherhoods for immediate wage increases.

Hines, it is understood, will tell the brotherhoods that he cannot grant more than a three per cent increase. Demands of the trainmen are for average increases of 40 per cent. The conductors' demands are for an average increase of 35 per cent.

Sweden Urged to Join World League

STOCKHOLM, Sunday, Nov. 9 (by the Associated Press).—In an address today in which he sketched the government's policy, Premier Eden urged Sweden to join the League of Nations.

He said the organization was not perfect and that joining it would mean serious duties and perhaps the loss of some independence, but that of being left outside the league would be still greater.

LYNCH TO BE RETAINED AS POLICE CHIEF

Nedderman's Status Following Return to Force is Still in Doubt, But He Will Not Displace Present Dept. Head

Boek Will Be Assigned to the Northern Station; Morse Will Hold Conference With Petersen Upon His Return

Former Chief of Police J. Henry Nedderman, acquitted on the charge of accepting bribes from Chinese and other gamblers, and against whom all the indictments were last week dismissed by District Attorney Ezra W. Decoto, will not be reinstated in the position he occupied as chief of police when the investigation began, according to announcement by Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. F. Morse today.

Morse further announced today that Chief of Police J. F. Lynch will be retained.

Captain of Police Charles H. Boek, who testified in the Nedderman trial, admitting that he sought to induce the chief to accept protection money, will be transferred from the central to the northern station, and Lieutenant William Woods will be transferred to the central station during the time of his suspension from duty as a sergeant, the rank he held at the time he was made chief, and Thomas O'Neill will take the rank of sergeant. O'Neill benefited by the promotion given to the other corporals of his class during the time of his suspension from duty as a sergeant.

It is further stated by Morse that all charges growing out of the general investigation will be suspended, and that the controversy between the police and the city council by Phil Rully against Captain Petersen will be taken up again upon Petersen's return to the city.

Chief of Police J. F. Lynch, now at Minneapolis attending a convention of the American Legion, will be invited to conference with Morse upon his return, it was said today. Just what the meaning of the proposed conference is the official will not explain, but it is inferentially given out that Petersen, who is credited with having instituted the investigation leading to the trial of Nedderman, will have to answer for not making good his charges by securing convictions.

It is further stated by Morse that all charges growing out of the general investigation will be suspended, and that the controversy between the police and the city council by Phil Rully against Captain Petersen will be taken up again upon Petersen's return to the city.

U. S. Steamer Lost; Fifty Men Missing

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Loss of the United States Shipping Board steamer Polar Land, with its crew of fifty men being sought, four steamships in distress, a schooner wrecked off Portland, Me., and wreckage of another schooner washed ashore at Scituate, Mass., gave evidence today of several sea tragedies. The steamer Polar Land, which went to the bottom in the Gulf of Mexico, is reported to have been wrecked off Cape Sable. The Canadian cable vessel Telephus sent a call for help from the vicinity of Cape Sable. Another vessel, which tried to give aid, also appealed for help from the same locality.

"Birds," he hoped, as his overjoyed mother gathered him to her arms. He remembers what we had planned for 24 hours," she said as little Albert dropped off to sleep on her breast.

National Hymn Led by Pastor Breaks Up Reds' Meeting

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 10.—A clergyman and a handful of his parishioners, suddenly launching forth into "The Star-Spangled Banner" broke up a meeting here last night of the "Communists' Council of America" which was being addressed by Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes.

When Mrs. Stokes attempted to expound the advantages of the workman of the United States would enjoy under a soviet form of government, the man of the cloth interrupted her, saying:

"All talk of a soviet form of government or a communist government is an impertinence." Before Mrs. Stokes could continue, the singing of the national anthem began. After the clergyman called for "three cheers for the United States," the speaker left the platform.

2 MORE JURORS ARE PASSED FOR TRIAL OF I.W.W.

Indication that James McHugo, former I. W. W. secretary here, accused of violation of the anti-syndicalist law, would fight conviction on the grounds that the law was passed long after he became a member of the organization was given in questions propounded to jurors in the hearing of the case before Judge James G. Quinn this morning.

Two jurors were seated during the morning session, five who so far have been temporarily passed. The examination of the sixth was recommenced by the defense at the afternoon session, but an adjournment was to be taken on Wednesday morning on account of tomorrow's holiday. The following had been temporarily passed when noon recess was taken.

Mrs. Ada Graber, 2017 Durant avenue, Berkeley, C. W. McCarron, 3445 Linden street, C. M. Hall, 2445 Harrison street, Mrs. Matilda Paul, 840 Ely street, Albany, Mrs. M. M. Bradford, 1109 Oak street.

"Direct action," "sabotage," "syndicalism" and other selections from the vocabulary of radicalism peppered the dialogue as the jury, in the hearing of the case, was sworn.

Chiefly at issue was the right of the defense to investigate the alleged activities of the I. W. W. labor union, a right which the state contested on several occasions but which was usually upheld by the court.

MRS. PAUL IN DOUBT REGARDING TERMS. Mrs. Paul was in considerable doubt as to the meaning of both "syndicalism" and "sabotage." Mr. Bradford said she understood the I. W. W. to be an organization of workmen. To the list of persons regarding acquaintance with whom the prosecution questioned her, the name of Theodore "Bolt" one of the defendants in the Sacramento I. W. W. cases some months ago was added.

Mrs. Bradford had heard of all the names, but she was not sure of the meaning of some of them. She was asked if she had ever heard of J. W. W. members being convicted of such charges and, finally, if she had thought that the I. W. W. were engaged in the destruction of property and the destruction of the lives of men.

Here Deputy District Attorney A. R. Brown made his most pointed objection to the proposed examination of the jury. He said that the right of the defense to investigate the activities of the I. W. W. labor union for the purpose of their economic and industrial tactics was "open season."

In reply to the question of the right of workmen to organize, this was Mr. Bradford's reply. "I believe," he said, "men have a right to organize and to work for their economic and industrial rights so long as they stay within the law."

Lieut. Murray Places Plane in Auto Truck

EL PASO, Cal., Nov. 10.—After an unsuccessful attempt to leave the snow-covered Rainbow Ridge yesterday, Lieut. Murray placed his plane in a motor truck. One wing of the plane was slightly damaged during the flight yesterday.

Murray and his observer, Cecil Connick, started from Mendocino on October 28 and were forced to alight on the lonely mountain top at an elevation of 7,000 feet. Their car-burster was faulty.

EX-SPOUSE OF LUCKY BALDWIN HEIRRESS WEDS

Hull McClaughy and Alameda Girl Marry at Ranch Made Famous As the Scene of Legal Battle for Children

Noted Breach of Promise Litigation Instituted by the British Officer's Daughter Recalled by Nuptials

At his ranch in Galt, Sacramento county, the scene of the memorable battle between himself and agents of his divorced wife, former Anna Baldwin, daughter of "Lucky" Baldwin, over the custody of their two children, Hull McClaughy and Miss Louise Hart, of Alameda, late last week according to information received today, were married. The marriage of the former husband of the Baldwin heiress to the Alameda girl was, until today, a closely guarded secret.

McClaughy has been out of the limelight since the conclusion of the $50,000 breach of promise suit against him in 1915, in which Mrs. C. Bobb, daughter of an English commodore, declared that he made love to her, asked her to marry him and then broke her heart by riding out with another girl. The suit was contested bitterly for three days before a jury and Judge W. H. Waste, and then suddenly terminated when her attorneys moved for its dismissal.

CASE DISMISSED WHEN PLAINTIFF COLLAPSES. The case was dismissed, it was explained, because the plaintiff had suffered a nervous collapse and was unable to resume the witness stand. At the time of the trial McClaughy lived at 17 Plaza Drive, in Berkeley, from where the two children of his marriage with the Baldwin heiress were kidnapped. He was charged with inducing them to surrender all his rights to them in consideration of a settlement in the sum of $400,000.

McClaughy denied the claim and recovered the children, dodging the same tactics as employed by the agents of their mother. With them he fled by machine to the Galt ranch, and there he was besieged by attorneys for days, until the authorities came to his rescue.

WAS POSTAL CLERK WHEN HE MET BELLES. At the time of the suit of Mrs. Bobb against McClaughy for $50,000 breach of promise damages she testified that he told her he had received $100,000 from Anna Baldwin as a divorce settlement and that he was to receive $75,000 more if he wedded her. He told her that she said he told her of owning the Galt ranch and other property. At the time of his marriage to the daughter of "Lucky" Baldwin he was an employee of the San Francisco post-office.

Since the divorce Mrs. McClaughy has resided principally in southern California. Recently she announced that she intended to marry an ultra-poverty hotel as a memorial to her father. During the war she appeared for a time in vaudeville and led the Red Cross, using her workhouse as a headquarters for the front line trenches.

Recently the Baldwin fortunes to which she was heir were vastly enriched by the discovery of oil under one of the famous Baldwin ranches.

Crisis Reached in Court Battle Between Coal Strike Leaders and Government

Here Are Latest Developments in U. S. Coal Strike

Ten leaders of the United Mine Workers assemble at Minneapolis to decide whether to obey or defy U. S. order to end miners' strike.

Federation of Labor protests court orders and pledges aid in continuation of strike. Despite the action of the American Federation, the belief prevailed that the leaders at Indianapolis would accede to the mandate of the federal court and issue the recall order.

Gompers reported to have been supplanted by radical element in control of mine workers. Miners' leaders reticent on eve of momentous conference at which future policies will be formulated. White House announces that settlement of strike is in the hands of the courts solely.

EDITOR CHARGES FACULTY OF U. C. WITH BOLSHEVISM

Following a charge by James E. Wales, editor of a Berkeley newspaper, that the University of California faculty was "Bolshevistic" and that the fact has delayed the selection of a successor to former President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Assemblyman Crombie Allen, president of the Southern California Associated Dailies, today communicated with Governor Stephens demanding an investigation. Wales admitted that he wrote a letter to the editor of the State in which he made the direct statement that faculty members are Bolshevists.

Wales said today that of late he has heard no statements that substantiate his declaration, except the case of "Professor" A. S. Kahn, professor of Slavonic languages, who, he claims, has uttered sentiments that savor of Bolshevism doctrine. He says that in July while in Honolulu Kahn delivered an address that so aroused the people there that the vigilantes corps of the Society for Home Defense took note of it.

Former President Wheeler is on his way to Chicago, and Dean Barrows is out of the city. M. A. Cartwright, assistant to the president and executive secretary of the Board of Administration, denied the charge that the university is permeated with Bolshevism doctrine. He said:

"There is really nothing to say on the subject. If a man makes a charge like that, and believes what he says, he should not be content merely with making it, but he should go out and prove it."

"Personally I feel this way about it. If a man says an insulting thing about me, and it is a serious charge, and that 'government by insult' would then be firmly established, many labor men refuse to follow what they considered 'lowest' was out," it was learned, following the conference.

The speaker was J. L. O'Sullivan, American Federation of Labor first vice president, who said that it was possible to avoid the strike. It was to be seen and an all-day session here are anxious to know what federal courts will do about it.

CAR SPEEDING WHEN STUDENT KILLED WOMEN

That Mrs. Jessie Chappel, killed Friday night at Moss avenue and Broadway by an automobile driven by Stephen Bechtel, University of California student, contributed to her own death by crossing the street at a point not designated as a street crossing, and that Bechtel's carelessness in driving at an excessive speed was the other contributing factor, was the decision of the coroner's jury in the case today.

Mrs. Chappel and her 16-year-old daughter Elizabeth were killed and her husband, Dr. H. G. Chappel, was injured when they stepped down from a street car and passed around the rear of it to go across the street.

Bechtel, with a party of young folks, whom he was driving to a dance, passed the point, driving in the opposite direction from the one traveled by the street car. He applied the brakes and the car skidded, striking the victims with the fender. Bechtel was charged with manslaughter and released on his own recognizance.

The verdict of the jury read as follows: Mrs. Chappel and her daughter, Elizabeth, came to their deaths as the result of injuries received when accidentally struck by an automobile driven by Stephen Bechtel, just before dark Friday night.

The jury found that the negligence of both the driver and the deceased contributed to the accident. The machine was being driven at a rate of speed in excess of the limit and the deceased was crossing the street at a place not designated as a street crossing.

Bechtel was traveling between 30 and 45 miles an hour in his automobile just before it struck and killed Mrs. Chappel and her daughter.

The testimony at the inquest today, Bechtel, who is the son of W. Bechtel, contractor of San Leandro, refused to take the stand after a consultation with his attorney, William Donohue.

The husband of Mrs. Chappel, H. G. Chappel, is in the Fabiola hospital suffering from injuries received in the same accident and was not able to appear at the inquest. He was represented by Attorneys Albert H. Elliott and Foster J. Crosby.

Bechtel said that he had not yet been able to talk with Chappel, but from long acquaintance with him knew that it would be his wish to do all in his power to prevent similar accidents if he thought any blame was attachable to him in the present case.

CHARGE UNDECIDED Elliott said he had not determined whether to ask for a manslaughter charge against young Bechtel.

Inspector W. H. Smith, who investigated the case, testified that the automobile skidded 75 feet before striking its victims and 61 feet afterwards. He said from information received from the car was going between 35 and 45 miles an hour.

Inspector G. Drew gave similar testimony, but through error said that the speed limit on Broadway at Moss avenue, where the accident occurred, was 30 miles an hour. After the inquest this was called to his attention, and Coroner Grant D. Miller said he would advise the jury, which was then deliberating.

Two persons who were in the automobile with Bechtel were put on the stand. They were A. L. Smith, University of California student, and Miss Frances Clark of 2743 Durant avenue. They are not related. Their testimony was that the automobile was going no more than thirty miles an hour and that as the Chappels came out from behind a street car they were not seen until it was too late to avoid hitting them, although the brakes were applied as the car swerved about, striking the woman and girl sideways.

OCCUPANTS FEEL IMPACT. Miss Clark said she felt the impact when the automobile struck the Chappels. She said she saw the three on the street just before they were hit. Smith pointed out a discrepancy in this statement, saying Miss Clark had told him that she did not see anyone on the street.

Miss Lydia Rich, 12 Napia street, was walking south on Broadway at the time of the accident. She said of the car swerving and said it was going at a high rate of speed, though she could not estimate it more closely than between 30 and 45 miles an hour.

T. S. Denmore, 27 Highland avenue, and E. G. Carter, 2308 Opal street, gave similar testimony.

No complaint had been filed when Bechtel appeared this morning in Judge Mortimer Smith's court. Bechtel was held a few hours after the police had apprehended him following the crash, but has since been released on his own recognizance.

The charge was set over on Judge Smith's docket to November 17, pending the filing of a complaint.

It developed today that Bechtel drove the automobile of the commanding officer of the Twentieth engineers in France for fifteen months without an accident.

If common tea is worth its price, Schilling Tea is worth $2 a pound.

Why? It makes more cups to the pound and the cups are better—richer, truer tea-flavor, more invigorating—and no tannin to speak of, unless you boil it.

You cannot get tea-strength from common tea without using an outrageous amount. The strength you get by using a moderate amount is tannin-strength—rank and coarse and bad for the insides.

Schilling Tea is the fine practical economical tea of this country.

There are four flavors of Schilling Tea—Japan, Ceylon-India, Oolong, English Breakfast. All one quality. In parchment-lined moisture-proof packages. At grocers everywhere.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all diseases come from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for cod liver oil, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. Buy one and see.

Only a Cold.
Are you ill? It is often answered, "Oh, it's only a cold," as if a cold was a matter of little consequence, but people are beginning to learn that a common cold is a matter not to be trifled with, that some of the most serious diseases start with a cold. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Remember that the sooner you get rid of your cold the less of danger and this remedy will help you to throw it off.

COUNCIL PASSES $2500 MEASURE

Following protests made on the floor of the council chamber against the action of the body last week in failing to provide $2500 as a city appropriation for the Armistice day celebration tomorrow, the council reconsidered its action this morning and passed an ordinance appropriating $2500 from the general fund, transferring the amount out of the public betterment fund for the purpose.

Jose Robinson, chairman of the civic welcome committee, filed a request with the council on behalf of the committee asking reconsideration of the council's action of last week, when the committee was asked to seek the money from the surplus of funds in the hands of the fleet president committee. Robinson pointed out that only $1500 was remaining in the previous fund.

H. C. Capwell also addressed the council in an appeal for the appropriation, declaring that business men of the city were interested in providing a proper celebration of the day for returned service men and a fitting memorial service for those who had died in the war.

The attitude of the council at first indicated that the appropriation could not be made. Commissioner W. H. Edwards explaining that the money was not available. Commissioner Bacous brought the issue to a vote by insisting on a vote on the appropriation, and an ordinance appropriating the entire sum was passed unanimously.

PIONEER OF BAY DIES IN SOUTH

BERKELEY, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Jennie Young, pioneer Californian and member of one of the prominent families in the bay region, died last night in Pasadena. Her body is being brought to Berkeley for funeral services to be conducted at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of E. C. Bradley, former assistant secretary of the interior, at 1820 Scenic avenue. Born in Pennsylvania seventy years ago, Mrs. Young came to California when a child of three, her parents settling in El Dorado county during the gold rush. She has spent many years of her life in the bay region, moving two years ago to Pasadena where she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Bradley, daughter-in-law of E. L. Bradley of this city. Mrs. Young was sister of Mrs. James B. Hume, prominent club woman, and an aunt of Prof. Samuel I. Hume of the University of California.

Funeral services tomorrow will be conducted by the Rev. Frank Brush of the Northbrae Presbyterian church.

MAYOR WILL LOSE HIS CHAUFFEUR

Mayor John L. Davis will be deprived of the services of his private chauffeur, Andrew Hayes, today by an ordinance which was given its first and second readings and ordered the office of official chauffeur, who will be attached to the city clerk's office and be subject to call for such service by the mayor or by any member of the city council. While not actually engaged in the capacity of chauffeur the appointee will be required to assist in duties connected with the office of city clerk. The salary was fixed at $125 a month. The mayor's present chauffeur receives $125 a month.

Mayor Davis was not present when the ordinance was read. The only dissenting vote was that of Commissioner Soderberg filed a communication to the effect that the mayor's private chauffeur works about an hour and a half a day and is idle the remainder of the day. He supplemented the communication with the remark that to allow a city employee to remain idle constitutes not only a waste of city funds, but tends also to disorganization.

Wife Tries Out Threat Offered by Her Husband

BERKELEY, Nov. 10.—Because she declared her husband, Leo Dexter, tried to frighten her with threats to hang himself, Mrs. Francis Dexter, 1214 Third street, attempted to give her spouse a dose of the same medicine. When Patrolman Frank Waterbury and Sergeant A. Putzker of the Berkeley police department arrived at the Dexter home in response to a frantic call from the husband, they found Mrs. Dexter with a towel around her head and a leather belt fastened around her neck. "I was just going to try and see if it hurt," she explained to the police. "My husband tried to hang himself a pole which he placed across two doors to scare me and I was going to try the same thing on him. The whole trouble is that my husband is jealous of me."

Dexter and his wife were both taken to the police station where Officer Waterbury acted as mediator and patched up their difficulties. They both promised to try and understand each other in the future and to avoid further attempts at suicide.

Four Films to Show "Red Cross in War"

The Red Cross and its record in the great war will not be forgotten tomorrow, Armistice Day. Four of a series of films which the Pacific division of the Red Cross is displaying as part of its campaign for the third annual roll call, will be shown at a community entertainment at Union street Presbyterian church.

"Humanity's Appeal," "The Red Cross of No Man's Land," "Soothing the Heart of Italy," and "Field Service on the Western Front," are said to have intense dramatic appeal, as well as showing the wondrous work for humanity accomplished by the Red Cross on the various fronts in Europe.

CAFE SHOOTING IS AIRED IN COURT

Mrs. Pearl Reno, piano player at the Hoffman Cafe, Seventh and Broadway, seated on the witness stand in Police Judge George Samuels' court this morning how Otis L. Randall, son of a wealthy Chicago grain broker, had terrorized the patrons of the cafe and forced her to remain on the piano stool at the point of a large army revolver.

Other witnesses' testimony was given today when the examination of a deadly weapon on the person of Patrolman Lee Bannister, opened. No decision was reached, the examination being continued until November 17.

Randall was seriously wounded by a bullet from Patrolman Bannister's gun. He recovered and was in court this morning. Randall was shot when he turned the gun on the officer and fired twice, quickly. Both shots narrowly missed the policeman, who returned the fire, and Randall fell to the floor, groaning.

At the request of the counsel for the defense Randall's bail was reduced from $5000 to $2500. Randall's father, a wealthy grain dealer of Chicago, and his mother, both appeared in court at the opening of their son's hearing.

On the night of October 25 a stranger entered the Hoffman Cafe when the gaiety was at its height. He waved a large army colt's revolver. Several of the employees, including dancing girls, were lined against the wall and Randall then directed his "b-d man" tactics toward Miss Pearl Reno, the piano player, whom he threatened to "punctuate" with bullet holes.

Randall was approached by Patrolman Bannister, who had been notified of the disturbance, and the shooting followed. Five shots in all were fired before Randall was finally taken in custody.

At the emergency hospital he said he had gone to the Hoffman just after witnessing a mountain feud motion picture play.

SANTA CLAUS TO VISIT INFIRMARY

Christmas spirit is in the air! The holly and shops and making of secret signals prove that the Yuletide is upon us. But out Livermore way where men and women and children are trying to get from under the clutch of the white plague in Arroyo Sanitarium and in the county infirmary, where there are no secrets for men and women, the Christmas spirit brings no glad message. Warmth and food and shelter are theirs, but no promise of surprises.

The Alameda County Hospital Federation has pledged itself that every man, woman and child of the several hundreds in the county infirmary and Arroyo Sanitarium shall have a merry Christmas, with a Christmas tree and presents and holly and candy and maybe, even a Santa Claus. They are asking the public, which has so much to share a bit. B. F. Gavica, Mrs. Norman de Vaux and M. J. B. Shafhirt have been named a special committee to look out after the holiday party. They have determined upon an appeal for $1 memberships in the hospital federation or cash donations, which will go toward furnishing good cheer at the county institutions.

The man or woman who will give his bit toward the Christmas fund which will provide gifts for the ill-conditioned and infirm of the county may leave the contributions at 214 Syndicate building or with the Blue Bird bureau, Oakland TRIBUNE.

SEX OF EGG IS OPEN SECRET TO WISE ANGELENO

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—Here's a man who can read the mind of an egg!

How first to capture your egg in these days of hen exclusiveness, he does not attempt to say, but it is declared that the system is of great practical value in this heyday of hen fruit.

A. Winquist, 1833 East Sixty-ninth street, a practical nurse, says that he can determine, at a glance, the sex of eggs and their fecundity. He can also look into a fowl's face and tell the laying proclivities, if it's that kind of a fowl.

In seven years, he can produce a perfect chicken—surely a matter of interest, when they're agitating about the perfect man and the perfect woman at the University of California. Winquist's standards of perfection are a little different from those of the average, but he can produce hens that will lay either all male eggs or all female eggs.

So confident is Winquist in his belief that he can read the mind of an egg, that he offers to pay $20 for every chick the sex of which he cannot determine, partially, as it were. He is quite willing also to accommodate any hen that wants to know something about the future of her family.

Boy, 15, Robbed of $1 by Bold Bandits

Leland Hewitt, 15 years old, of 9980 Stearns avenue, experienced the sequel to a movie thriller he had seen last night, when, as walking home he was held up at the point of two shiny revolvers.

"Throw up your hands quick," was the brusque command Hewitt heard at 8th avenue and Foothill boulevard. He complied, looking into the aforesaid guns, held by two masked men. The bold bandits got the round sum of $1 as plunder.

THIRD WIFE ASKS COURT FOR DECREE

Pretty Mrs. Martha M. Sutton, whose husband, John B. Sutton, is nearly twenty years her senior, told Judge J. S. Koford in the trial of her suit for divorce today that Sutton made a practice of having her get out the pictures of his first wife and show them to guests. She said he twice married before he married her, nearly five years ago, and that he continually boasted of his love conquests. She said he told her he did not believe in morality and virtue outside of his own home.

Mrs. Sutton also charged that he threatened to "kill her, cut her names and frequently stayed out all night without explanation. Once, she said, after he had spent the night in Santa Cruz, he ordered her, on returning home, to get out without waiting to pack her clothes. The evidence developed the fact that Mrs. Sutton once had her husband arrested on a charge of threatening to kill her and had charged him with insanity, though he was found sane.

BLIZZARDS IN MIDDLE WEST SEVER WIRES

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 10.—Telegraphic and telephonic service out of Denver is seriously crippled by storms today. Trains from the east, west and north are from three to five hours behind schedule as the result of a blizzard that followed twelve hours of heavy snow fall over a wide distance.

Eight miles of poles of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company were reported down east of North Platte, Nebraska. That company has a wire outlet to the south only. The Western Union and Postal Telegraph Company wires were working to the east and these companies also had a limited service to the west.

A heavy loss of live stock on the ranges in the northern part of Colorado is feared as the blizzard struck that part of the State without warning. The range is now in a snow-drift to an average depth of a foot. Kansas and Nebraska also reported heavy snow and high winds. The mercury dropped below zero in several parts of the storm area.

FUEL SITUATION IS CAUSING ANXIETY
The leading theater in Denver gave its ticket money back last night because the company scheduled to appear was snow-bound "somewhere in Nebraska."

The fuel situation in several places is causing anxiety.

Drop in temperature and heavy frosts that did some damage to vegetables and berries, were the only signs of winter in the Eastbay. The mercury fell to 47 early this morning. On the other hand, reports from the middle west told of great blizzards that have been raging since Friday night, severing wire connections and holding up train schedules.

All coast wires were cut off from eastern connections this morning. At 7:30 a. m. it was learned that at least two wires were down on both sides of Denver. Seven inches of snow have fallen about Denver since Friday. Another blizzard is blowing about Sherman Hill, between Rawlins and Cheyenne, Wyoming.

The high wind and sea along the coast has moderated, and again the bay harbors are open for vessels. The schooner Luzon and the steamer Nagano Maru, which started for sea a few days ago and returned on account of the bad weather, sailed again yesterday and both got a good slant off shore, and now are well under way. The Luzon made three attempts to leave the Golden Gate. In her first attempt she lost two of her crew, who were washed overboard just outside the light ship, and she put back. She started again on Friday, but put back again as the wind and sea was too high. Yesterday conditions looked good and the two vessels were expected to leave for Lytleton, New Zealand, with cargo of coal oil, under command of Capt. Beattie. Several of the vessels which were storm-bound along the bay harbors on this coast managed to enter and sail yesterday.

HEAVY SNOW AT DENVER IS REPORTED.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 10.—The first heavy snowfall of the season began late Saturday night and continued practically all day Sunday. Denver and vicinity having been covered to a depth of seven inches at 6 o'clock last night. One foot of snow fell at Fort Collins and five inches at Pueblo. The snow was reported to be general throughout the state but in no section was it heavy enough to cause damage other than to interrupt telegraph communication in one or two instances.

LIVESTOCK SUFFERING IN WESTERN KANSAS.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 10.—Parts of the southwest received the first touch of winter last night. The extreme weather apparently was centered in western Kansas and in the Texas panhandle. Duhart, Texas, reporting snow and a driving wind after a night of rain. Rain which was general over western Kansas turned to sleet last night, and later snow and a high wind developed. Livestock was declared to be suffering in western Kansas.

Gompers Scores Federal Injunction Held Against Coal Men as Autocratic

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—President Gompers and the members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor issued a statement endorsing the coal miners' strike and pledging the full support of the Federation to the miners' cause.

The statement follows in part: The executive council is of the opinion that the officers of the United Mine Workers of America did everything in their power to avert this great industrial controversy.

The machinery which has been successful in bringing about agreements between the miners and the operators still exists, and the mine workers were, and are, ready and willing to enter into negotiations without reservation.

Our government interjected itself and applied for an injunction. A temporary restraining order was granted by a Federal judge which restrains the officials of the miners from in any way advising their membership on the situation, and also restraining them from discussing, writing or entering into any kind of a conversation with their membership on the strike situation.

SAYS RIGHTS INVADIED
Both the government then proceeded to further invade the rights of the miners to the length of demanding from the court an order commanding the officers of the miners' union to withdraw the strike notification. The court complacently complied.

Never in the history of our country has any such a mandatory order been obtained or even applied for by the government or by any persons, company, or corporation.

Both the restraining order and the injunction are predicated upon the Lever act, a law enacted for the purpose of preventing profiteering on the food and fuel supplies of the country. There never was in the mind of the Congress in enacting that law or in the mind of the President when he signed it, that the Lever act would be applied to workers in cases of strikes or lockouts. The food controller, Herbert Hoover, specifically so stated.

Members of the committee having the bill in charge have in writing declared that it was not in the minds of the committee, and the then attorney general, Mr. Gregory, gave assurance that the government would not apply that law to the workers' effort to obtain improved working conditions.

In the course of President Wilson's address to the Buffalo convention of the American Federation of Labor, November 1, 1917, among other things, he said:

"While we are fighting for freedom, we must see among other things, that labor is free. It means that we must see to it that the instrumentalities by which the conditions of labor are improved are not blocked or checked."

The autocratic action of our government in these proceedings is of such a nature that it staggers the human mind. In a free country to conduct of a government applying for and obtaining a restraining order prohibiting the officials of a labor organization from contributing their own money for the purpose of procuring food for women and children that might be starving, is something that when known will shock the sensibilities of men and will cause resentment.

REGARDS LAW VIOLATED

It is a well established principle that the inherent purpose of the injunction processes, where there is no other adequate remedy at law, was for the purpose of protecting property and property rights only, thereby exercising the equity power of the courts to prevent immediate and irreparable injury.

Both the restraining order and there is no warrant of law in all our country to use this injunction power of equity courts to curtail personal rights or regulate personal relations.

We declare that the proceedings in this case are unwarranted, as they are unparalleled in the history of our country, and we declare that it is an injustice which not only the workers, but all liberty loving Americans, will repudiate and demand redress.

ASSAULTS PROCEEDINGS
The citizens of our country cannot afford to permit the establishment or maintenance of a principle which strikes at the very foundation of justice and freedom. To restore the confidence in the institutions of our country, and the respect due the courts, this injunction should be withdrawn.

BROWN CASE RUMORS HELD TO BE FALSE

MARYSVILLE, Nov. 10.—That he will refrain from discussing the charge of murder against Mrs. Fred J. Wilson and her brother, Frank A. McCormick, for the killing of Charles Brown on the Wilson ranch a week ago, but that he will not sit idly by and see the evident attempt of the prosecution to color the facts in the case," was the statement of Charles A. Wetmore, counsel for the defendants, following the publication by a local newspaper of a purported interview with Sheriff C. J. McCoy.

The statement alleged to have been given out by Sheriff McCoy which aroused Attorney Wetmore's resentment, declared that the sheriff and Special Prosecutor W. H. Carlin and the district attorney had investigated a rumor that Wesley Potts, one of the witnesses to the shooting of Brown, had been cut in the leg with a knife by Mrs. Wilson in a quarrel.

McCoy is alleged to have said that Potts denied being cut by Mrs. Wilson and said the cut was caused by a nail. McCoy is also alleged to have said that Potts admitted having a photograph of Mrs. Wilson, but denies that he is infatuated with the woman, as had been rumored.

In the same alleged interview McCoy is quoted as saying he had obtained information from Sheriff J. B. Weber of Butte county that Mrs. Wilson and McCormick were in Oroville the Friday night before the shooting looking for Brown and his sister, Mrs. O. J. Howard, over whom the killing of Brown is said to have been made.

McCoy believes the information and the records cleaned from so outrageous a proceeding.

By all the facts in the case the miners' strike is justified. We endorse it. We are convinced of the justice of the miners' cause. SHAPRO NAMED LION GOVERNOR OF CALIFORNIA

Ben F. Shapro has been appointed district governor of California for the International Association of Lions Clubs by Jesse Robinson, president of the association.

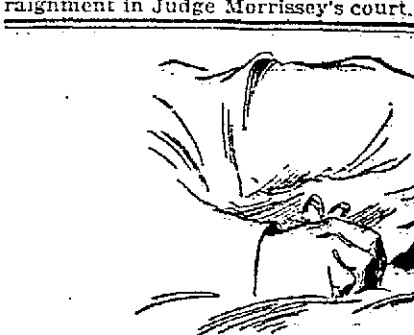

Robinson announced at a meeting of the board of directors of Oakland Den, International Association of Lions Clubs, that he had called meeting of the district governors for December 16, the meeting to be held in Oklahoma City, Okla. He says that matters of extreme importance to the International Association of Lions Clubs will be taken up at the meeting.

The local Lions have a membership of 125, which includes Oakland business and professional men. Shapro, who has been named as a district governor, is president of the Oakland Den. His term of office expires in February, 1920.

given by Sheriff Weber will tend to show that Brown was intimate with Mrs. Howard and that the brother and sister were estranged from her because of those alleged relations.

Although Mrs. Wilson and McCormick appeared perfectly calm and self-possessed when they were in the writ of habeas corpus proceedings and again in Judge J. M. Morrissey's court when they were arraigned on the first-degree murder charge, Mrs. Wilson is said to have become worried over the situation.

Jail attaches declare she does not wear the cheery smile with which she greeted persons before the arraignment in Judge Morrissey's court.

HEARNE SETS NEW 100-MILE RECORD

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 10.—Eddie Hearne today holds the world's record for 100 miles on a dirt track.

He set it yesterday driving his Chevrolet car in the auto races at the Arizona state fair here. Hearne drove the 100 miles in 59 minutes, 9 seconds, lowering the record of 51 minutes, thirty seconds, which was set by Tom Alley at Hamline, Mich., and has stood since 1914. Roscoe Scales, driving a Frontenac, was second in yesterday's race here, and Cliff Durant, driving a Chevrolet, was third.

Army Service Makes Aliens Good Citizens

Speaking on the subject "Americans All," Professor Earl G. Linsley of Mills College gave a talk at the regular community Americanization meeting of the Sons and Daughters of Washington at Chabot hall Saturday evening. Engaged in educational work in the United States Army overseas, as well as at Camp Fremont, where he gained valuable experience with the different nationalities in the army, the speaker related his observations as applied to the work of Americanization.

"The army," he said, "has made these foreigners who served Uncle Sam feel that they are now truly Americans. Having performed their duty along with other Americans, they are for everything that is 100 per cent American."

What Blood Is Made Of

So Fate seized them—a snobbish family of British blue-bloods. Cast them on an island where the voice of the world was lost.

Tumbled them, lord and butler, lady and scullery maid, into a common mass of moles and footies. Laughed at their former glories, their former handicaps. Pointed to an untamed jungle, ruled only by wild beasts, and said: "Now we shall see who rules."

Then the butler, because he was a man, became a knight; and the great lady who once dined him, served, loved him—fought with a sword for his aid.

One day a ship! Rescue! Home! The old world and its old ways, its pride, conventions, shallow distinctions. Did the true love, the true leadership, of the wilds hold then? Come and see.

You'll never forget "Male and Female!"

WIFE NUMBER THREE HUNTS HUSBAND HERE

Oakland police today were asked by Martha A. Carver of Portland, Ore., to apprehend her husband, Nellis N. Cousinow, a clerk, and assist her in straightening out the tangled marital affairs to which she has unwittingly become a party.

After deserting her in Portland last September, Cousinow was last heard of in Oakland, Martha Carver reported to a police officer. She charges that wife No. 1 of Cousinow is in an insane asylum in the east. Wife No. 2 is residing in Butte, Mont., with two little Cousinows.

Mrs. Carver desires to have an explanation from her husband, according to her complaint to the Oakland police, of his having two wives and two children now living. She charges that wife No. 1 of Cousinow is in an insane asylum in the east.

Mrs. Carver apprised her husband of her suspicions of his former marriages and informed him she would make a thorough investigation. Cousinow then became unusually downcast and then suddenly dropped out of sight.

The local authorities are powerless to act, in apprehending Cousinow, unless a warrant is issued by Portland authorities, according to Acting City Engineer Burnett Hamilton.

There is no trace of Cousinow in Oakland at this time.

The letter Mrs. Carver said she had received from Oakland, written by her husband, stated that her husband saw a vision of his wife standing at his bedside, with a paper in her hand for him to sign. "Is there some paper you want me to sign," he wrote. "If so, I don't want you to be tied up on my account. Send papers to 3733 Piedmont avenue, address landlady and she will forward them to me."

Mrs. Cousinow is living in Oakland temporarily at the Hollywood apartments, 2541 San Pablo avenue.

Your Teeth Need Looking After

The first important step in good dentistry is deciding what shall be done with the teeth. If the dentist's advice is wrong, a long chain of troubles is sure to follow.

It ought to be worth a few moments of your time to have your teeth thoroughly examined by a dentist who makes a business of examining teeth. Such a man is in every dental office using the E. R. Parker System.

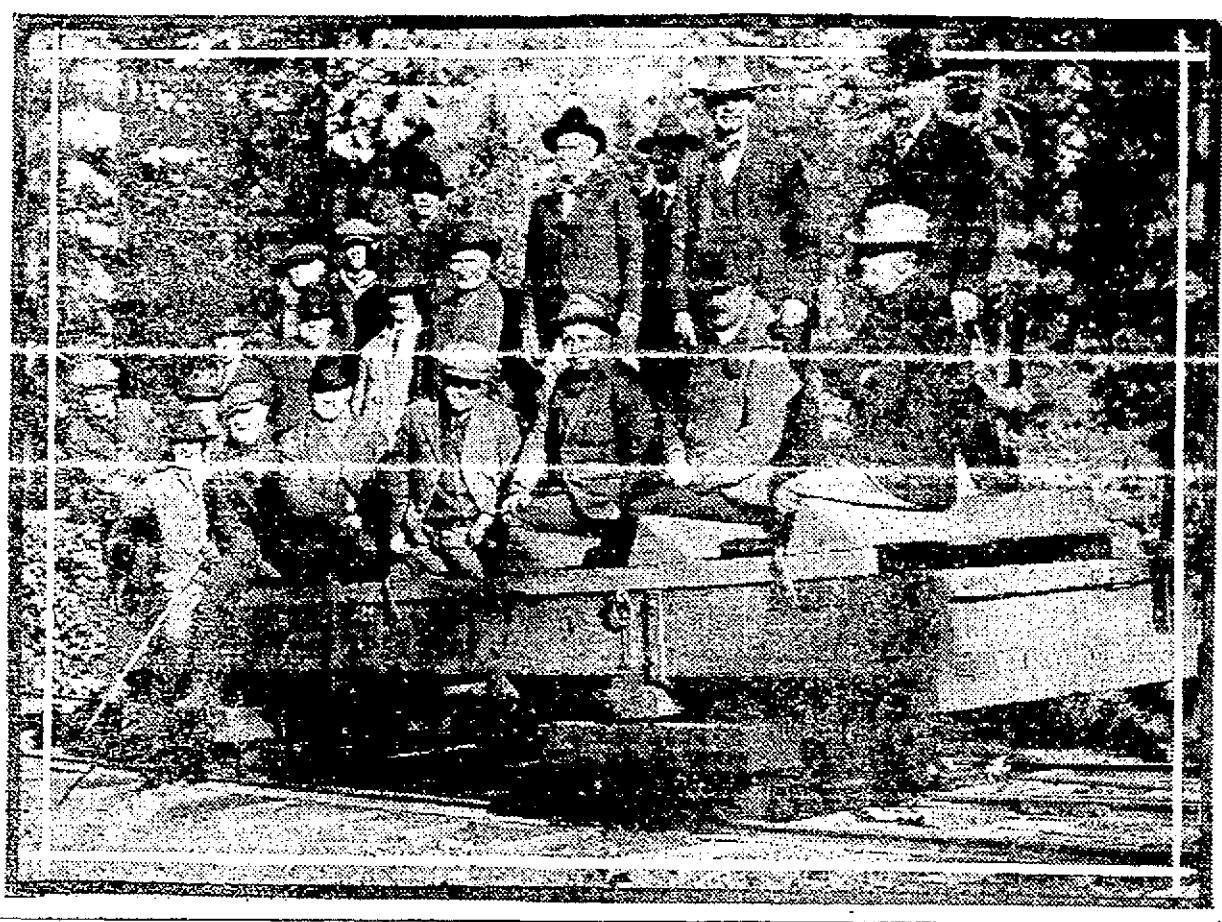

His duty is to find out what your teeth need and tell you. His advice is well worth having, for he examines so many mouths he knows what he is talking about. For this advice there is no charge. If you don't want to take the dentist's advice, all right. If you do take it, he will tell you the price for doing the work under the E. R. Parker System, which means that it will be done without a waste of your time, without fear of pain, and done so well that you will be satisfied. E. R. Parker System dentists are not satisfied until you are.

City Officials Inspect Hetch-Hetchy Project; First Hand Information Obtained

Party of officials from Eastbay cities on wooden tram car at Early intake, Hetch-Hetchy valley, descending 3700-foot drop from intake station to power plant on the river bank below. The tramway drops 1500 feet in its 3700 feet of length and is laid at an angle of 85 degrees in its steepest pitches. For transportation purposes it may be said to be straight up and down. Even the seats have to be pitched steeply to enable tram car passengers to keep right side up on the trip up and down. It is perhaps the steepest tramway in America.

The eighteen city officials of Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Richmond, who went to the Hetch-Hetchy Thursday on a four-day trip of inspection of the Hetch-Hetchy system, reached home last night after spending two days in the Hetch-Hetchy and Lake Eleanor regions. They had a trip filled with novel incidents and gleaned an accurate mind-picture of the Hetch-Hetchy project and the progress of the construction work.

The party included the following Eastbay officials: Mayor Louis F. Frost, Oakland—Commissioner W. F. Edwards, F. P. Morse, Fred Soderberg, City Attorney H. L. Haas, Assistant Superintendent of Survey W. W. Blair and City Engineer Burnett Hamilton.

From Berkeley—Mayor Louis Bartlett, Councilman Carl T. Bartlett, Councilman C. D. Heywood, Councilman George Schmidt; City Attorney Frank Cornish and Water

From Richmond—Councilman E. J. Gerard and City Attorney O. J. Hall.

The party also included S. H. Smyth of Richmond, City Engineer M. M. Shaughnessy, Francis M. O'Shaughnessy, B. B. Chaffee and Land Agent Joseph Phillips of San Francisco and THE TRIBUNE representative.

GUESTS OF CITY ENGINEER

The entire party were the guests of City Engineer O'Shaughnessy. Trips hundreds of feet down dripping shafts, rides in tunnel dump cars while dynamite blasts roared a salute and tore down the tunnel face; rides on mountain rolling stages, on railroad locomotives, on the gasoline-driven handcars and on the steepest tramway on the Pacific coast and perhaps in the United States, were happenings of the trip. In addition there was a snow storm on the Lake Eleanor road, a scamparing bear or two that fled from camp garbage barrels when disturbed, numerous big bucks with their company of does, and many other sights, experiences and incidents which will live long in the memories of all members of the party.

When the time comes for settling finally the water problem of the four east bay communities, whatever action may be taken, either for or against the Hetch-Hetchy project, will be based principally upon first-hand information gleaned on this trip. It was not intended that the trip should have any decisive action and it is safe to say that the large majority, perhaps all, of the party, are still in an open frame of mind regarding the solution of the east side water problem.

Without committing themselves the east side officials frankly marveled over the amount of work already carried out and the stupendousness of the project in its entirety.

HISTORY OF TRIP

The party got under way in Oakland about 8 o'clock Thursday morning and were carried in five autos to Oakland, where lunch was served.

Into Sierra foothills, where the early argonauts searched and worked for gold. At the top of Priest's Hill, famous in Yosemite wagon and motor made, where the final power plant is to be established, when the water from the Sierra basins make their final plunge down a 1250-foot drop to the Moccasin Creek power plant yet to be built. Here a tunnel is being cut through 17,000 feet of solid rock.

The tunnel is in 3500 feet and the rock men are making about 10 feet progress daily. The tunnel face is blasted twice daily when 21 charges made up of 125 sticks of 60 percent dynamite, are fired. The afternoon blast Thursday was shot while the visitors were in the tunnel, en route to the open air in a train of dump cars. The concussion was severe at times and the rush of air blew hats, unlined ears and caused general feeling of unrest and apprehension as blast after blast went off. The cars seemed to move toward the tunnel entrance with ever-increasing slowness and the blasts appeared to shoot with ever-increasing frequency. A few minutes after the blasting a volume of fume-laden air and dust was driven out of the tunnel mouth by the big air pressure and tainted the open atmosphere about the tunnel. It would have strangled to death anyone caught in its embrace within the tunnel. The mine cutters and joked as the blasts exploded, and the visitors commenced to fidget.

HEADQUARTERS AT GROVELAND

From this point the party continued to Groveland, the Hetch-Hetchy headquarters, where the city of San Francisco maintains the chief Hetch-Hetchy administration building, a model, modern hospital, a club house, a hotel, a school, a church, a garage, quarters for married men, roundhouses, freight yards, etc. The City of San Francisco has a larger financial investment in Groveland than the assessed wealth of the original community. At the clubhouse single furnished rooms, with hot and cold water, with unrestricted bathroom privileges, are furnished for $1 a month, or a similar month-round room for $19 a month. Board in the clubhouse is $125 a day. Men are paid varying scales of pay ranging from $4 for rough laborers to $15 for mine laborers; $25 for mechanics, such as blacksmiths, etc. The $125 board rate applies to all types of accommodations, whether municipally operated or run by private contractors.

ON INTO HETCH-HETCHY

Friday morning the party went on into Hetch-Hetchy, with a stop en route to inspect a 9999 ft. tunnel where there are being started in the great direction as a part of the great waterway. Leaving the tunnel the visitors went down in the mine cage to the bottom level, where miners were drilling with batteries of compressed air drills, and three drills to the battery, and mounted on steel bars in three-unit formation. The shaft visit was a wet but worthwhile experience.

A part of the party was taken to Lake Eleanor, twelve miles over the mountain, where a concrete dam of multiple arch design impounds the waters of Lake Eleanor. All water power is secured to drive the rotary street cars in San Francisco.

The Lake Eleanor dam, the waterway to the power plant at Early Intake, perhaps a dozen miles away, and the power plant itself, cost $500,000 and produces power which, if all sold, would bring in $230,000 annually.

Construction figures, costs, water and power quantities, Hetch-Hetchy litigation, size of domain and other data, were supplied by O'Shaughnessy wherever suitable opportunity afforded. From the great mass of information was culled the following data:

There are 450 square miles, or about 420,000 acres in the Hetch-Hetchy project. Of this total the Lake Eleanor district comprises 50 square miles, Cherry Creek district 120 square miles, and Hetch-Hetchy the balance. The dam at Hetch-Hetchy will cost $5,400,000 and entails a half-million of preliminary work of a temporary nature before the permanent dam can be built. This dam will be on a foundation 350 feet in length, 20 feet wide at the top, will be 25 feet wide at the top; will back the river waters up the Hetch-Hetchy valley for 9 miles eventually.

DECLARES WATER NEEDED ON FARMS

Protesting against Oakland and the Eastbay cities participating in the Hetch-Hetchy water supply, W. C. Le Hane, an attorney of Modesto, appeared before the City Council this morning in behalf of farmers and property owners of the district about Turlock and Modesto, and members of the Modesto Irrigation District, following the return of Oakland city officials today from an inspection trip of the Hetch-Hetchy properties with officials of the other Eastbay cities.

Le Hane declared that the Modesto and Turlock districts were on record as being unalterably opposed to the taking of any more water from the Modesto Irrigation District, following the return of Oakland city officials today from an inspection trip of the Hetch-Hetchy properties with officials of the other Eastbay cities.

"I am here," said Le Hane, "to make clear to you the strength of the opposition against the plan. That water is our life. We can use all of the spare water from the Hetch-Hetchy and we can't develop if the water is taken away from us."

CITIZENS URGED TO JOIN IN FETE

Mayor John L. Davis this morning issued a public proclamation calling upon the citizens of Oakland to join in the program arranged for Armistice Day tomorrow and asking that all business houses be closed during the morning hours. The proclamation in full is as follows:

November 10, 1919.

To the People of Oakland:

Tomorrow, November 11, 1919, will usher in the first of what is to be one of the greatest anniversaries in the history of the United States and of the world. November 11th, Armistice Day, will be a greater memory with each succeeding year.

On November 11, 1918, one year ago, the final curtain was rung down on the most terrific struggle that the world had ever witnessed. For four long and weary years the lands of France and Belgium had been laid waste by the hand of the ruthless invader. For four long years the flower of the manhood of the allied European nations had been sacrificed that a great principle—that the world be made and kept safe for democracy.

For more than a year our own sons and brothers had been engaged in the great struggle, and the ever increasing number of our citizens who had done their share in throwing back the hordes of the Hun until they cried for mercy, which they had denied to others. On the morning of November 11, the roar of the mighty war monster was stilled, and the first signs of the dawn of peace became visible through the war river clouds.

Now, one year later, nearly all of our victorious heroes have returned to their homes, and have laid aside their war stained uniforms and resumed their civil occupations. We are to be given a chance to officially welcome them home from a trip that has made them the heroes of the hour.

On November 11, 1919, at which time we can show the depth of our affection for them. But the heartiness of our greeting can never show the depth of our feelings of gratitude to them for the work which they did so well.

We will also have another opportunity, sadder in its nature, but glorious in its endeavor. We will be asked to remember, in the time of our joy at the safe return of these, the wonderful men who made the supreme sacrifice, and who now are sleeping in the fields of valor. Those men will never be forgotten and their glory will shine as brightly as the stars of heaven. When we see the mighty parade of our service sons passing through the streets, we shall feel that a phantom platoon is passing through the streets, which invisible though it may be, is nevertheless taking its full share in the observance of the day.

Now, therefore, I call upon all citizens of Oakland to join in the program arranged for Armistice Day, Tuesday, November 11, 1919, and request that all business houses be closed until the hour of 12:30 p. m., that all may take part in the day's observance.

JOHN L. DAVIS,
Mayor of the City of Oakland.

STOMACH PUMP SAVES LIFE OF ALCOHOL USER

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 10.—Homer Landon walked into a drug store here late yesterday, asked for a bottle of grain alcohol, and was accommodated with the "drug store" variety, to which acid had been added to prevent its use as a beverage.

Landon started out of the store, when his earnings overcame him, and tearing off the wrapper, he took a deep draught. Then he gave a startled yelp and collapsed on the floor.

A speedy patrol wagon, two police surgeons with a stomach pump, and a naturally strong constitution aided Landon to escape death, but he was in the hospital today taking treatment for a badly-burned stomach and throat.

Police Aid Sought in Hunting Family

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—Charles Hoffenberg, 22 Maria Court, Alameda, appealed to the police today to aid him in locating his wife and two small children, Bernie and Virginia, aged respectively two and three years, who were due at their home last night upon their return from a trip East.

Hoffenberg said he went to the depot in Oakland last night to meet his family but they did not arrive. He expressed the belief they possibly had arrived at another terminal in Oakland and, not finding him there, continued on to San Francisco.

War Guns Quieted One Year; Eastbay to Celebrate Tomorrow

OAKLAND PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE TO VETERANS

Huge Parade and Celebration to Be Held in Honor of the Heroes Who Crushed Kaiser
Armies During Big Struggle

On the eleventh day of the eleventh month at the hour of eleven in the morning of the year 1918, the last gun was fired which signaled that the war was done which changed the fate of the world.

At that hour when the last gun sent its message of death across the trenches, the parade which Oakland has arranged to inaugurate the day of anniversary will be taking its way through the downtown section to the cries of the multitude.

A great body of citizens will begin to move from Washington and Eighth streets, 15,000 in line to give concrete to their gratitude that the "boys had come home." At 10:15 a. m. guns from the coast artillery forts, the naval training station and the warships in the harbor, bells and whistles from factories and public buildings will boom, shriek and clang, assembling that terrific noise of the last day of overseas fighting. Abruptly at 11 a. m., the din will cease, as it did one year ago.

LINE OF MARCH

The line of march for the parade will be as follows:

South on Washington street from French, marching north on Washington to Fourteenth streets; East on Fourteenth to Broadway; south on Broadway to Seventh street; counter-marching north on Broadway to San Pablo and Washington streets; south on Washington to Fourteenth; west on Fourteenth street to Clay street; south on Clay street to place of respective location and stand.

The reviewing stand will be in front of the City Hall, facing east.

As the line of march proceeds a fleet of aeroplanes will fly over the parade, letting fall showers of programs of the local Armistice Day celebration. The machines will be piloted by Lieutenant J. T. Cumberbatch, Lieutenant E. V. Pickup and Lieutenant F. E. Harding, associated with the United Aircraft Corporation.

HEROES AND VETERANS

The heroic dead of Alameda county who fell on the field in France will not be forgotten tomorrow and the joy of the celebration. Three hundred and four men and women lives to demand that the city of Oakland should gather in the Municipal Auditorium tomorrow afternoon the families, the friends and the public which has homage to return heart for those who did not return to participate in a community service which is in recognition of their deeds. Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College, and Arthur M. Free, district attorney of Alameda county, will deliver the memorial addresses. The program in full will be as follows:

Oakland Chapter Expected to Go "Over the Top" Tomorrow With Closing of Registration Throughout County

Armistice Day is the last day to answer to the third annual Red Cross roll call. Tomorrow Alameda county, which is within the jurisdiction of Oakland Chapter, will register "over the top" or accept the judgment that the men and women are indifferent to the task which the humanitarian society is carrying on for the veterans and the families of the veterans or the pledge of aid which it gives in every catastrophe which may arise. Oakland Chapter has still several thousand of the 50,000 quota which was appealed for by the Pacific division before it can register an honor record.

ALARM CLOCK THEFTS AWAKE POLICE FORCE

Woman Suspected of Stealing
500 Timepieces Which Have Disappeared From Oakland
Homes in Twelve Months

Approximately 500 alarm clocks have been filched from Oakland homes in the past 12 months by a burglar, or "burglars," who has a mania for this form of loot, according to Acting Captain of Inspectors Lon Agnew of the Oakland police.

The recent recurrence of such thefts and the theft of an alarm clock last night at the home of V. Rinehardt, 1919 San Pablo avenue, has awakened the police to action.

In all probability, the "alarm clock burglar" is a burglar—a woman of the finest crook type. Crows showing positively that other such thefts were committed by a feminine hand are held by the Oakland police, declares Acting Captain Agnew.

Several months ago officers at the First National Bank building and in the Bank of Italy building reported an epidemic of alarm clock thefts. In three such reports of burglaries, the police were advised that a woman was seen lurking in the vicinity of the office that was burglarized. In practically every office building that was robbed, only the alarm clock was taken.

Acting Captain Agnew said the police had redoubled their efforts, after the report of the San Pablo avenue residence being entered last night. They expect to locate a roomful of alarm clocks when the burglar is finally apprehended.

The theft of Rinehardt's alarm clock was the fifth visit of the "alarm clock burglar" in the past two weeks.

PORTLAND CHIEF NAMED Jenkins, for several years a captain in the Portland police department, was today appointed chief of police, vice Neil Johnson, resigned.

tomorrow morning to fall into line for the Armistice Day parade, H. C. Conwell, president of that body, just like the commander in war times, will call the roll. The name of every man who has applied for a place in the Chamber of Commerce division will be called out and he will be expected to answer "Here."

ALL SCHOOLS CLOSED.

Schools will be closed during the entire day of Armistice Day. Following places will be closed until 12:30 p. m.

Promptly at 10 o'clock bombs will be fired from the top of downtown buildings and daylight fireworks will be sent into the air. These will be the signal to the watchers that the parade has started.

Up to noon today more than 1700 service men had registered at the Liberty Hut for the parade. The registration bureau closes at 9 o'clock this evening. Badges, which will be worn in the parade by the service men and which will identify them in the dance floor at the hall in the Municipal Auditorium tomorrow evening, are being issued to the men as they register.

SCHOOL BOARD WILL DISCUSS LABOR RULES

Conflict Between Unions and Civil Service Board Will Be Taken Up at Meeting of the School Officials for Hearing

Conflict between Civil Service Board rules and the rules of various unions under which employees of the Board of Education are working, in connection with the question of overtime and the number of hours in a working day, will be brought before the school board at its meeting this evening by Secretary Lloyd D. Barzee.

Barzee will render a partial report on the long list of charges of irregularities in the handling of school department affairs brought to the attention of the board last Thursday evening by President Floyd Gray. One of the charges to be reported on is that department employees have violated the rules of the school board and the civil service board in collecting overtime.

According to Secretary Barzee union rules provide for a 44-hour week, with payment for a full day on Saturday or for double time as overtime when the employee works all day Saturday. The civil service board rules contemplate a six-day week of eight hours to each day.

The charge that certain board employees working on a per diem basis have been paid for fifteen-day vacation periods has been investigated and substantiated by Barzee, who lays the blame upon former secretary and business manager, Daniel W. Pratt, who recently resigned.

According to Barzee Harry G. Winham, foreman carpenter; J. F. Kelley, foreman plumber, and O. D. Duncan, foreman electrician, have all been paid for vacation time since they were changed from payment on a monthly basis to a per diem basis. "This was arranged for by Pratt," Barzee states, and is a direct violation of the rules. Following the recent audit of the school books, when attention was called to a number of unsigned time cards, Barzee declares that the three foremen refused to sign the cards.

Other charges made by President Gray that will be reported this evening by Barzee are that plumbers have repaired department automobiles, spending two and three days on a job that could have been done in half a day by a skilled plumber, that time has been wasted on jobs while men were waiting for materials, that school property has been used for personal gain, that there are too many janitors in the schools.

WINHAM CASE CHANGED

The entire aspect of the case of Harry G. Winham, foreman carpenter of the School Department, who was recently suspended by the School Board under charges of dishonesty made by Director Fred A. Campbell, and whose appeal was to have been heard before the Civil Service Board Wednesday night, was changed this morning in an opinion of City Attorney H. L. Hagan to Frank Colbourn, secretary of the

Patient Leaps From Bed; Ends Life With Gun

BERKELEY, Nov. 10.—While other patients looked on unable to stop him, Rome T. Bassler, 50 years old, formerly of Sisson, shot himself in the head yesterday morning at Alta Bates Sanitarium.

When the frantic calls of patients brought hospital attendants to the room, Bassler was dead. Without a word to other patients in the same room Bassler leaped from his bed, went to a suitcase belonging to him and picked up a revolver. Occupants of the room seeing the gun rang for a nurse, but Bassler pulled the trigger as the attendant entered the door.

Bassler, who came from Sisson several months ago, making his home for a time at the Y. M. C. A., was an employee of the California Fish Commission at the hatchery at Sisson. He was prominent as a member of the Sisson Lodge of Masons and the Knights of Pythias. Bassler was considered a man of moderate means. He had lived in Sisson for twenty years. A week ago he became a patient at the sanitarium, where he was under care of Dr. Robert T. Legge, University of California physician.

Besides his parents, who reside in Kansas, Bassler is survived by a sister, Mrs. Laura Rogers, of Navarre, Kansas. Her husband would come west to make arrangements for the funeral. Despondency over continued ill health is given as the reason for his suicide.

Civil Service Board, declaring that that body has no jurisdiction to entertain the appeal.

According to Hagan, the Board of Education is an independent branch of the city government and is not by charter made subject to Civil Service. The Board has the right to appoint employees from the Civil Service eligible list, Hagan decides, the positions so filled are not in the classified Civil Service and the Civil Service Board has no further jurisdiction over such employees.

Further in his decision Hagan states that the Civil Service Board is without authority to hear the Winham appeal, and should it undertake to do so, its action would be advisory only and with no binding force. Hagan's statement of the case has been sent to the Civil Service Board with the advice that the board should not consider the appeal, and the case will probably be wiped entirely from the Civil Service Board records.

U.C. 'PROFS' TO ENJOY FORUM DISCUSSIONS

More Than 100 Members of Faculty Sign Charter Roll;
Problems of General Interest to Be "Threshed Out"

BERKELEY, Nov. 10.—In order that professors at the University of California may not get "rusty" on affairs of moment, a "forum," similar to the one organized at Stanford university, has been formed by faculty members at the University of California.

More than 100 members of the university's faculty are already included in the charter roll, organization being perfected at a meeting held at the Faculty club. Professor C. D. Loderbach, of the geology department is president of the forum, with M. C. Flaherty, professor of forestry, as vice-president and F. F. Fette Jr., professor of railroad engineering, as secretary-treasurer.

"Members of the university faculty are ordinarily so busy with class and research work that they are inclined to get out of touch with matters of general university interest," explains Professor Loderbach as to the objects of the new organization. "The object of these meetings will be primarily to present to the members such matters that concern student and faculty alike, as well as other subjects of general interest."

According to Professor Loderbach the meetings will not take on any of the formality of the gatherings of the academic senate, where affairs vital to the faculty are discussed behind closed doors. All meetings of the new body will be devoid of parliamentary rules, in order to promote free discussion. The new body will carry with it no resolution adopting powers.

The new organization is similar in purpose to the "forum" which has existed at Stanford for a score of years and will operate along similar lines, as a means of bringing affairs of campus interest before the faculty members.

Silva's Homer Gives Kriegs 8 to 4 Victory

By MAURY PESSANO.

With the score 4 to 3 in favor of the Oakland Native Sons No. 50, in the eighth inning, and the bags loaded, and two men out for the J. J. Kriegs, "Doc" Silva, left fielder for the Fruitvale boys picked out one of Larry Rieves' shots and hit it to the farthest corner of the Fruitvale park for a circuit clout, giving the Kriegs an 8 to 4 win over the Natives.

All through the game Doc was having his troubles finding flies in left field, but the home run made by him to win the battle for the Kriegs made the fans forget what he had done up until this time.

Jack Killian and Larry Rieves hooked up in a good pitchers' battle until the fatal inning for the Native Sons. Jack was accused by Manager Holstrom of the Natives, of throwing the mud and loquacious ball, and the Natives' eighth inning, scattered in four innings. He pitched good ball, the last two innings of the game.

The Natives hit Killian hard in the earlier part of the game, which gave them their four runs. The right-hander of the Clothiers proved effective in the pinches. Larry Rieves, however, against the former coarser, worked in good form, but was wild at times, and when runners were resting on bases Larry had to stick them in place in order to get them over a total of twelve hits, but managed to keep them pretty well scattered until the eighth inning. With Killian's small crowd of fans that turned out to see the game, he witnessed a good pitchers' battle. The Natives' eighth inning, scattered in four innings. He pitched good ball, the last two innings of the game.

The Kriegs did not lose any time in putting away a run, for the first time since they were picked up by Ed. Pessano, who tossed the ball to Coddington forcing out the Natives' eighth inning. It was the best play of the day.

After the eighth inning, "Wild Bill" to third, Larry tried to pick Silva off first base once too much, for he threw a ball away from the initial catch to allow Keane to score. Silva tried to throw the ball, but had no chance with the way Daddy Rieves was throwing them.

Two teams have been entered from the Herold allies in the Pacific Coast League. The Athletics and the Athletics are the Athletics and the Athletics are the Athletics.

SEVEN HURT
IN EASTBAY
AUTO WRECKS

An Eastbay resident was seriously injured and six others narrowly escaped death in three automobile accidents reported today. Robert King, owner of the largest fruit ranch in the San Francisco district, was picked up on the roadside, unconscious, near his wrecked machine. He had rolled down the side of an embankment between Valle Vista and Alvarado when his auto skidded. He suffered from broken ribs and internal injuries.

Crashing into the side of a street car shortly after midnight at Twenty-third and Telegraph, an automobile containing four occupants was wrecked, though the occupants miraculously escaped injury. The car was driven by Kenneth Done of 1912 Virginia street, Berkeley. He was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. W. Done, and sisters Elizabeth and Marjorie.

Done was driving east on Twenty-third street, when he failed to avoid the clutch of his car failed to work. Despite the driver's frantic efforts to bring the brake into play, the machine continued at a swift rate. Possible death or at least serious injury appeared inevitable.

At Telegraph avenue, the automobile collided with the side of the trolley car, No. 471. The women who were in the trolley were thrown from their seats onto the floor. Done was thrown from his seat and none of the occupants sustained an injury.

Inspector Joseph Robinson arrived on the scene shortly after the crash, which occurred a few minutes after midnight. He had the wrecked machine sent to a garage, while the occupants continued on their way home, boarding the street car that had figured in the serious crash.

An automobile driven by Frank Rose collided with a machine driven by M. S. Lucas at Second and C streets, Hayward, with the result of serious damage to both machines. The occupants narrowly escaped injury.

Gertrude Elliott Defies Father Time
Oakland Actress Keeps Girlish Charm

Wife of Forbes-Robertson On Visit to America With Her Sister, Maxine Elliott, to Event Shaft to Her Father

By JANE DIXON
(Special to THE TRIBUNE)
NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—How lightly the fingers of time touch a lovely woman!

It has been five years since the one-time Jessie Dermot of Oakland, now Lady Johnston Forbes-Robertson—the star-eyed Gertrude Elliott—warned her dainty feet against the soil of her birthplace.

During that time star-eyes have read the book of life as it was never before written, as it must never be written again—chapters grieved, poignant, pulsing, heart-smashing, soul shattering. They have looked upon the great war from the midst of the ruins of it. Yet the shine in them is undimmed. It is deeper, perhaps, a trifle more solemn, steeper, but the star points remain.

Grieving because the span of an ocean separated her from her father, Captain Thomas Dermot, who died in Oakland January 11, 1915, after a quarter-century residence. Lady Johnston and her sister, Maxine Elliott, erected a monument to his memory at Rockland, Maine, the family birthplace. Now she comes to that monument and to "keep track of Sir Johnston," as she explains it, during his present tour as a Shakespearean lecturer.

ACTIVE WALK WORKER
As the wife of one of the best loved characters in all England, Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, actor, scholar and gentleman, Gertrude Elliott found plenty of work for willing hands.

Both she and her distinguished husband gave themselves up to the business of victory. Her soldiers and sailors' hut, built on the plan of our own, was one of the most popular in London. The hostess, herself, practically lived there. She saw to it that things were kept cheery. She inducted every one of her friends of the stage, of the musical world, of the world of art and entertainment, into her service.

I called on Lady Forbes-Robertson the other day. "We have to be quiet," she said in explaining her choice of a temporary New York home.

And in that explanation lies the whole secret of Gertrude Elliott's ripening charm. She gives off an atmosphere of peace, of calm, of purpose, and a radiant, inviolable joy. Her black hair is lustrous, as gracefully arranged as the day she went to her English home. Her eyes are more intensely blue. She is more exquisite in every way. What a representative American woman to grace social and artistic circles of old and new England! We could not have chosen better.

"I want you to see the picture of my four daughters," she said, with the pride of the mother bird thrubbing in the soft note of her voice. Shades of yesterday! Jessie Dermot with four daughters—and the "Quite a crowd—aren't they?" she Legs," she said. "In England, until recently, parents did not send their children to school if they could possibly afford what was considered the more genteel method of education—a tutor or a governess at home."

"Fortunately for English men and women of the future, their parents are beginning to realize such segregation is a grave mistake. Children should be with children. It is better that way. There should be competition in lessons, exchange of youthful ideas, incentive of example."

"Even today an English family of any standing does not send its children to what we call a public school. Over there they are called boarding schools. To send a child to school is to establish one's self hopelessly decreed. It is a stigma which sticks. It simply isn't done, except by the poorest people, the very lowest class."

"An English family will, save, pinch, deny itself, in order to send the son to some insignificant 'grammar school' or daughter to an equally ordinary 'ladies' school. The country is honeycombed with such schools."

CLASS DISTINCTION FORTIFIED
The outcome of this striving to retain class barrier is a very inferior system of public schools. An English public school is really a joke. My husband says he believes it is because teachers in these schools are so poorly paid. Perhaps that is the secret—that and the staid old idea of class distinction. I do know public schools in Scotland are excellent, far ahead of the English, and paragonized much as they are in America.

"I remember when I first went to England. I made the obvious social error of remarking to a group of English friends I had been educated in the public schools. I suspected they pictured me as some sort of a youthful ragamuffin until my husband explained the situation. Then they asked all sorts of questions. They were astounded at the idea of a millionaire, a man of family, being proud to graduate in his children from our public schools."

NO DESIRE TO QUIT STAGE
"You have not felt the call to retire from the stage, as Sir Johnston has?" I asked.

"Gracious, no," was the quick reply. "I love it. My husband declares he will never again put the grease paint on his face. He does not know perhaps. But this feeling is not contagious. I am just as happy in my work as ever, and he is just as happy in his work as when he, too, was playing. Retiring from any work must be a matter of individual decision. It is the privilege of the worker to go on with work until he or she feels the call to stop. Any other course could be basely selfish."

"The answer was the one you would expect from a gifted actress, wife of a great actor, both of whom graced and glorified the stage of two continents."

CHILDREN CHOOSE LIVES
"Certainly not. I will be proud, happy to have our daughters follow in the footsteps of their father. We do not urge our children to any line of endeavor. They must choose for themselves. Having chosen, we will do our best to guide and counsel them wisely."

Lady Forbes-Robertson told me something about English school life. "I'm afraid our American boys and girls are not properly appreciative of their public school privi-

SWITZERLAND
WILL FOLLOW
OAKLAND PLAN

Switzerland is to adopt Oakland factory and manufacturing methods, according to Dr. Francis Furger, secretary of the Swiss mission for economic studies, and Dr. Rodolphe Lendi, a colleague, who have been sent to the United States by their government to investigate industrial conditions.

"You have some of the most wonderful factories we have ever seen," Dr. Furger said today, following several days' tour of local plants under the escort of officials of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

"Particularly are your factories unique in lighting and ventilating equipment, and we will recommend to our people that they follow the plans of Oakland factories in this respect."

Dr. Furger, though holding a high government position, plans to enter the employ of an Oakland factory, donning working clothes and laboring side by side with the other men. In this way he intends to get a close insight into manufacturing methods and also to gain at first hand the attitude of the men as regards loyalty and pride in production.

Dr. Lendi, who is a recognized authority in his country on political science and economics, plans to go to Los Angeles to continue his investigations and may follow Dr. Furger's example of working in a factory.

The two Swiss are members of a commission of 250 sent to this country for a course of study extending over two or three years, all of which Dr. Furger intends to spend here.

The doctors already have investigated the plants of the Shredded Wheat Company, the Standard Oil at Richmond, the California Cotton Mills, the American Cane Sugar Company, the Marichant Calculating Machine Company and the Western Canning Company.

Victory Pilgrimage
to Lourdes Tuesday

PARIS, Nov. 10.—(By The Associated Press)—An allied victory pilgrimage to Lourdes has been organized for Armistice Day tomorrow. It will be led by Cardinal Luçon, archbishop of Rheims. Four British and nineteen French generals will take part.

The boys and the flag under whose starry folds they marched.

"Don't feel too badly about your high cost of living," she warned the visitor from overseas at parting. "Try to remember London is worse, and Paris quite impossible. And just see to my friends and to Sir Johnston's. We are happy to be here and hope we may stay until we must hurry home to trim the Christmas tree for the children."

TWO FINED IN FIRST TEST OF
BEER MEASURE

The "people" today won the first scrimmage in police courts to test the constitutionality of selling two and three-quarters beer in violation of the Hart ordinance.

Incidentally, Attorney J. W. Stetson, for the defense, gave his definition of intoxication, a weighty and somewhat clouded definition of this national subject. It follows:

"Intoxication is that condition which arises in the human system when the alcohol taken into the system at one time, or successively, cannot be destroyed by oxidation, which is the method by which the system takes care of this poison, and therefore goes into the blood and tissues and produces the effect peculiar to alcoholic poisoning, which is intoxication."

The definition was taken down by the court reporter.

Stetson was defending Dorothy Harrison and Jack Devine, cafe proprietors, charged with selling "two and three-quarters" without having a city license. Dorothy Harrison, the waitress, was fined $50 and Devine was fined $100.

The legality of the Hart ordinance, concerning the sale of malt drinks, was challenged by Attorney Stetson, who declared that under the reading of the ordinance it was against the law to sell malted milk drinks. He questioned the statements of drunkards, who said they were intoxicated by two and three-quarters beer, not by "personal knowledge," but from what "I have heard."

The cases were disposed of by Police Judge Mortimer Smith in favor of "the people."

HOP PRICES SOARING.
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 10.—Prohibition is not worrying Sacramento hop growers, according to reports from hop growers. Three crop contracts are being signed up. It is said the 1920 crop is selling for 40 cents, 1921 for 35 cents and 1922 for 30 cents. These prices are away ahead of any offered during the war. Most of the hops are going to South America.

TUG HAS HARD FIGHT THROUGH
COAST STORM

The gasoline tug "Wotoc," a 65-foot craft, which left Oakland October 31 for Elliott bay, near Seattle, where the ship A. J. Fuller was sunk a year ago by a Japanese freighter with which she was in collision, was picked up southeast of the Columbia river lighthouse some days ago in a disabled condition, her crew exhausted by their long fight to keep above the heavy wind-tossed seas. The daring little craft arrived in Astoria yesterday, according to advices received here, having been towed to Astoria by the Ononeta, a tug.

The trip to Elliott bay was for the purpose of investigating the condition of the sunken steamer, which went down with a valuable cargo aboard, which, it is believed, can be salvaged. The tug Astoria will continue her trip, but with a reorganized crew.

The boat is owned by W. T. Cleverdon, and was commanded by Captain F. F. Friesell, with William Iglau as chief engineer and J. E. Edwards as navigator and crew. They are all of Oakland.

BRER RABBIT OLD FASHION MOLASSES CANDY

Put one-quarter cup of butter in kettle, allow to melt over fire. Then add two cups of BRER RABBIT Molasses and about one-half cup of sugar. Stir to dissolve sugar.

When well cooked, stir constantly until, tried in cold water, candy becomes brittle. Before taking from fire add a teaspoonful of vinegar.

Pour into buttered pan. When cool enough, pull until it becomes light in color.

Cut in small pieces with knife or large shears and give the kiddies and grown folks all they want.

GOLD LABEL BRER RABBIT is the molasses that makes pancakes, waffles and biscuits taste so good. The kind that mothers spread on sliced bread for children.

Your grocer also sells Green Label BRER RABBIT. This is a specially selected molasses for cooking and baking.

Remember—the GOLD LABEL for table use and high-grade baking—the Green Label especially for baking. It costs less.
